Attire for Meetings

Business attire is requested for all meetings on Capitol Hill during the week of CUNA GAC.

Basecamp for Hill Meetings

The cafeterias in the basement of the Longworth House Office Building and the Dirksen Senate Office Building are recommended locations to sit down for a few minutes to rest or get a snack in between meetings.

Identification and IDs

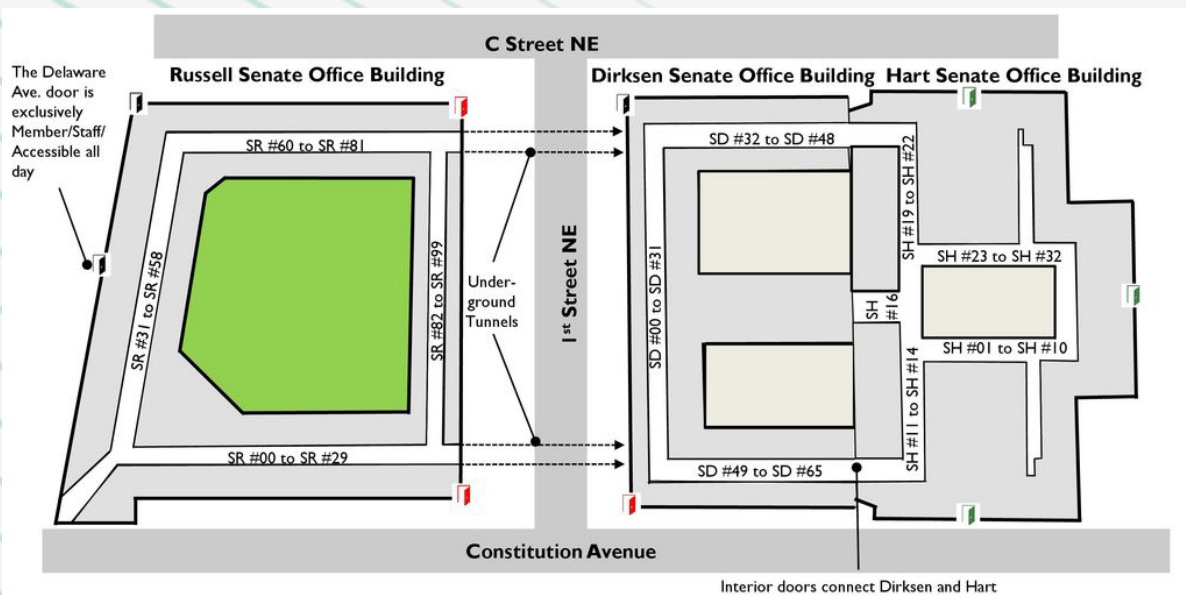

Please ensure you have a valid driver's license or passport with you as we go to the Hill. You may be asked for identification to gain entrance to the buildings.

Masks and Vaccines

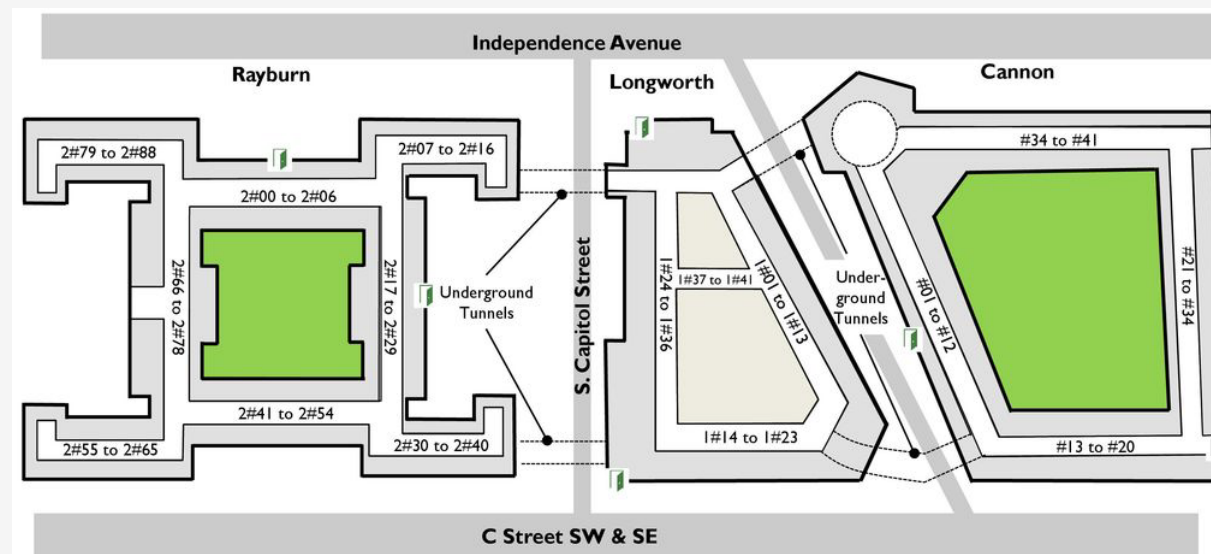

At this time, there are no mask mandates or health protocols in DC, however, individual offices may have masking requirements or health protocols. The GWCUA team will have KN95 masks available for you, should the need arise.

SENATE OFFICE BUILDINGS

HOUSE OFFICE BUILDINGS

Capitol Hill Office Buildings – Fully Open to the Public

Currently, there are no restrictions for the public to enter the House and Senate Office Buildings. Restrictions put in place in recent years requiring escorts in the office buildings have been removed. Access to the U.S. Capitol remains limited to official tours, which can be requested at the U.S. Capitol Visitors Center on the South side of the Capitol.
