

WYOMING

CREDIT UNIONS

Wyoming House Majority Floor Leader Chip Neiman

Chip Neiman is a Wyoming native whose family has ranched in northeast Wyoming for generations. He graduated from Hulett High School in 1985. On November 3, 2020, Neiman was elected to the Wyoming House of Representatives representing the 1st district.

Neiman was elected as the Republican nominee for majority floor leader in the state House of Representatives in November 2022.

Neiman lives in Hulett, Wyoming. He and his wife Joni, have two children and four grandchildren. Neiman is Christian and attends Hulett Assemblies of God, a church affiliated with the Assemblies of God. He is also affiliated with Vocations for Orphans and the Greater Hulett Community Center.

In the 2023 session, Floor Leader Neiman was the primary sponsor of the following bills:

- HB 70 Definition of home-based education programs
- HB 210 Financial institution discrimination
- HB 250 Runoff elections

