

CREDIT UNIONS

TALKING POINTS FOR Idaho Credit Unions' Economic and Community Impact Reports

Background: For more than 80 years, Idahoans have benefitted from the “People Helping People” philosophy embraced by not-for-profit, cooperative credit unions. Across the state, credit unions are serving their members, communities, and employees providing a positive economic and community-focused impact.

This impact has been documented in an independent analysis performed by renowned economists from ECONorthwest, and by a GoWest Credit Union Association analysis of credit unions' services as employers, financial institutions, and community partners.

Economic Impact

Credit unions not only serve their members but also help drive local economies, which correlates to a positive impact on Idaho. Credit unions' not-for-profit, cooperative structure, local footprint, and community engagement drive a unique impact that benefits the economy and provides people with tangible financial services and benefits they might not otherwise have access to.

A 2022 independent analysis performed by renowned economists at ECONorthwest finds that the 40 credit unions serving Idaho* Idaho are essential to the state's economy and delivered a total economic impact of $1.7 billion.

As not-for-profit cooperatives, credit unions reinvest their earnings into their member-owners, resulting in benefits such as lower interest rates on loans and better savings rates. And these tangible benefits help stimulate economies through members' increased ability to support local businesses when they buy products or pay for services.

- For example, in the 12 months ending March 31, 2022, Idaho's credit unions delivered $124 million in financial benefits to their members. ECONorthwest found when those benefits were spent on Main Street, the positive impact for the economy was $161 million.

Credit union jobs offer additional economic benefits to the state. The analysis found that 3,700 Idaho credit union jobs supported an additional 1.5 jobs in the economy – for a total of 9,200, another factor in the economic multiplier effect.

- credit unions are present in every community – either by providing consumers with 24/7 access to safe, convenient technology or in personal service offered in 235 branches located in 35 of the state’s 44 counties!

Credit unions are a popular choice for consumers. There are 1.3 million credit union memberships in Idaho. It makes sense for people to choose a credit union in Idaho as their financial services partner! **

Community Impact

In addition to the impressive economic contribution Idaho’s credit unions make, a GoWest Credit Union Association analysis of credit unions’ community contributions demonstrates how credit unions lead the way in supporting local initiatives by being dynamically involved with their communities.

Whether through serving communities with financial wellness education or volunteering, employees of credit unions are dedicated to making Idaho a great place to live. That study finds:

- Credit unions contributed $5.16 million for scholarships, arts and culture, disaster relief, animal shelters, and more. They supported 598 non-profit organizations, and volunteered more than 29,000 hours serving the community.
- Idaho consumers trust credit unions with their money. $7.1 billion is deposited in high-yield accounts. $71 million is deposited in children’s savings accounts.
- Credit union teams spent 3,791 hours teaching free financial education to more than 37,000 children and adults.
- Credit unions helped Idahoans get where they needed to go, providing $4.6 billion in auto loans.
- $185 million in loans helped small businesses on Main Street.
- And credit unions helped Idahoans get the keys to the front door – providing $4.9 billion in home loans, help for 1,640 first-time homebuyers, and nearly 20,000 home equity loans.

Credit Unions are Essential to Idaho’s Economies, Communities, and People!
