Dean Cameron, Director
Idaho Department of Insurance

Dean Cameron is currently the Director of the Idaho Department of Insurance, a position he has held since June 15, 2015, following his appointment by then Governor C.L. “Butch” Otter. He was reappointed by Governor Brad Little in 2019 and then again in 2023.

Director Cameron is a third-generation insurance agent with over 32 years of experience in the industry. He has also served in state government for 28 years, including 25 years in the Idaho State Senate. During his tenure in the Idaho Senate, he held various leadership roles, including co-chair of the important Joint Finance-Appropriations Committee.

In his role as Director, Cameron has been actively involved with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC), where he served in several key positions, including chair of the Western Zone and Immediate Past President. His leadership has been key in shaping insurance policies and regulations at both the state and national levels.
